Who are the Friends of the Concord Free Public Library?

WE ARE PEOPLE LIKE YOU—
PEOPLE WHO LOVE AND USE THE LIBRARY.

The Friends of the Concord Free Public Library is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization with more than 1,000 members. We are proud to support the work of the library to our community by funding purchases of books and media; by presenting programs for adults, teens, and children; by supporting Library staff professional development; and by providing donated books to area charities including Open Table and Concord Prison Outreach. We are able to do this through memberships, gifts and donations, and sales of donated books.

Friends of the Concord
Free Public Library

The Friends of the
Concord Free Public Library support:

MUSEUM PASSES

The Friends pay for library passes to the Boston Children's Museum, Museum of Fine Arts, Museum of Science, New England Aquarium, and many others.

MOVIES ON DVD

Every year, the Friends purchase hundreds of films. The Library is a perfect (and free!) place to discover new movies and find your old favorites.

AUDIOBOOKS

Audiobooks offer the convenience of listening in your car or on the train, while exercising, or because reading is physically challenging.

FLICKS AT FOWLER

An adventuresome choice of American and foreign films, carefully selected by the Friends movie committee. A great Friday evening—and the popcorn is free!

MUSIC PERFORMANCES

Internationally renowned artists perform in the lobby and on the lawn in the summer. Cutting-edge chamber music, Klezmer, Latin American, country, folk, band, and more. All free.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMS

Author visits, crafts programs, summer workshops, the Halloween party, Toddler Sing-alongs, plus Friday afternoon movies are funded by the Friends.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Providing donated books to area charities including Open Table and Concord Prison Outreach.

AUTHOR APPEARANCES

Featuring the Poetry at the Library series. We have also hosted distinguished historians such as Drew Gilpin Faust, Nathaniel Philbrick, and Doris Kearns Goodwin, recipients of the Ruth Ratner Miller Memorial Award for Excellence in American History.
