

Coming Soon...GO GREEN – THINK GREEN!

On June 14 the Concord Free Public Library unveils its first-ever ADULT summer reading program, sponsored by the Friends of the Library and by many generous Concord businesses. Adults can rate the books they read, then register for chances to win exciting prizes. Everyone is invited to participate. All books—any genre, any topic—are eligible for rating. Rating slips will be available at the Circulation Desk—just ask! All participants are encouraged to read and rate often for more chances to win.

AND JOIN US FOR THESE WONDERFUL FREE GO GREEN – THINK GREEN WORKSHOPS: July 8, 2010 Eat Your Landscape!

presented by Hasso Ewing at the Main Library, 7 pm

Learn how you can build a home landscape that feeds your family and helps the planet by transitioning your land into a garden of food delights.

July 20, 2010 What does Green mean to you?

presented by Julie Vaughan at the Main Library, 7 pm

Join Senior Town Planner Julie Vaughan on an exploration through the various tools available for "carbon footprinting" the foods we crave, the cars we drive, the activities we enjoy, and the homes we cherish.

July 29, 2010 Composting

presented by Mark Hanson at the Main Library, 7 pm

This workshop will cover the hows and whys of composting. Learn all about the fertilizer value of leaves from various trees and other sources.

August 12, 2010 Garden Party and Eco-Swap

Enjoy an afternoon Summer Garden Party at the Main Library, 3 pm

Bring something to swap: a plant or veggie from your garden, a "go green" eco tip, a favorite "eat local" tip or recipe. Sip a cool beverage and talk books with other book-loving library patrons. Win exciting prizes!

Our generous prize donors include: the Friends of the Concord Library, Concord DPW, Vanderhoof Hardware, Nashoba Bakery, Debra's Natural Gourmet, the West Concord 5 and 10, and the Concord Bookshop. All participants in our Adult Summer Reading Program, Go Green – Think Green, are eligible for these raffle prizes.