

July 2013 Exhibit at the Concord Free Public Library

Emily Hossfeld paints small and miniature plein air paintings of local scenes in and around Concord and Boston. Nancy Kronenberg, member of Carlisle Artisans and Weavers' Guild of Boston, has been weaving for over forty years and selling her work for ten. Handwovens include table linens, wall hangings, and large throws in natural fibers. The show is on display in the second floor Art Gallery at the Concord Free Public July 2nd through July 30th.

