

MARCH 20-MARCH 26

Food for Fines

Concord Free Public Library will partner with Concord's Open Table community supper and food pantry services to offer a week-long Food for Fines Program.

Fines will be waived in exchange for food donations delivered to the circulation desk at either the Main Library or the Fowler Branch.

Participation in the Food for Fines Program is simple. For each non-perishable item donated, the library will waive $1.00 in overdue fines. It is important that all donations are sealed and neither expired nor dented. Donations will be applied to overdue fees only and cannot be accepted as payment for lost or damaged items.
