

Friday Flicks at Fowler

Friends of the
Concord Free Public Library
P.O. Box 644
Concord MA 01742

Nonprofit
U.S. Postage
PAID
Concord, MA
Permit No. 186

1322 Main Street, West Concord, MA
FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

January 24, 7:00 pm

The Lives of Others (Germany, 2006)

In this Oscar-winning political thriller directed by von Donnersmarck, an East German secret police agent spies on a prominent playwright suspected of disloyalty, and finds himself irresistibly drawn into the lives of the playwright and his girlfriend, a famous actress. Rated R

January 31, 7:00 pm

The Well-Digger's Daughter (France, 2011)

Daniel Auteuil directed and stars as a poor laborer whose world is turned upside-down when his beloved daughter falls in love with a dashing, wealthy pilot, who is called away to fight in World War I. Not Rated

February 14, 7:00 pm

Kinamand (Denmark, 2005)

After Keld's wife leaves him, he becomes a regular at a Chinese restaurant. He is offered a large sum of money to marry the restaurant owner's sister so she can become a Danish citizen. Will the marriage be a charade or a chance for new love? Directed by Henrik Ruben Genz. Not Rated

February 21, 7:00 pm

The Intouchables (France, 2011)

Wealthy quadriplegic Philippe, seeking a caretaker, hires ex-con Driss, and they set out on adventures that change both men's lives. Directed by Olivier Nakache and Eric Toledano, this was the second most successful French film ever. Rated R

March 7, 7:00 pm

★ Main Library, 129 Main St.

Wonder: The Lives of Anna and Harlan Hubbard (USA, 2012)

Wendell Berry narrates this lyrical documentary about Anna & Harlan Hubbard, who followed Thoreau's example in leading a life of simplicity. Wonder considers the Hubbards' astonishing life of freedom and contentment, and what it says to Americans today. Producer Morgan Atkinson will discuss his film. Not Rated

March 21, 7:00 pm

Kon-Tiki (Norway/U.K./Denmark/ Germany/Sweden, 2012)

Joachim Rønning and Espen Sandberg directed the adventure of Thor Heyerdahl's daring 1947 voyage, sailing 4,300 miles across the Pacific on a balsa wood raft. Rated PG-13

