Who are the Friends of the Concord Free Public Library?

WE ARE PEOPLE LIKE YOU—
PEOPLE WHO LOVE AND USE THE LIBRARY.

The Friends of the Concord Free Public Library is a nonprofit, charitable organization that supports the library and promotes its vital role in our community. With more than 1,200 members and volunteers, the Friends make it possible for the library to supplement its activities with additional materials, performances and programs, and professional development for one of the Library’s most vital resources—its librarians and staff.
