

Grace Lin to Speak at the Concord Free Public Library

Author/illustrator Grace Lin is the next speaker in the Leslie Riedel Memorial Lecture series. The talk will take place on Friday, November 18, 2016 at the Concord Free Public Library, 129 Main Street, Concord at 7 pm. Lin's parents were Taiwanese immigrants to the United States and she graduated from the Rhode Island School of Design. Her books emanate from a childhood of two cultures and have received numerous accolades. Her book Where the Mountain Meets the Moon was a recipient of a 2010 Newbery Honor Book mention. There will be a reception following the talk and books for autographing will be available for purchase from Porter Square Books. This is a perfect chance for kids age 8 and up as well as adult fans of Grace's books to meet one of their favorite authors. Registration is at www.concordlibrary.org and will begin on November 1, 2016.
