

3 Painters/3 Visions is an exhibition of paintings by three local artists in the Gallery at the Concord Public Library. An abstract approach to the motif unites the diverse work of these artists.

While Haroon Khimani's abstract acrylic media works seek the beauty to be found in collapsed structures and natural disasters, Susanah Howland's closely observed oil paintings reveal the shifting perceptions of a sense of place. Vicki Denby's ethereal "Portraits", drawn with black watercolor, are in a style reminiscent of intaglio printmaking.

The exhibit runs March 2 through 30, 2013. There will be an opening reception Thursday, March 7, 7-9 pm.
